

Community Health Services by School of Physiotherapy in association with PHC / ASHA Health Care Workers

School of physiotherapy, RK University constantly works with inclination to spread their services in community health care, with this regards community camp was held in Panchayat Office, Amargadh-1, Rajkot-Bhavnagar highway, Rajkot on 14th November 2014 (Friday) in celebration of world Diabetes Day.

More than 20 patients came with different types of diseases and disorders and managed in the camp mainly degenerative joint diseases, low back pain, Osteoarthritis, Shoulder pain, etc...

Those patients requires prolong intervention were continued at OPD, School of Physiotherapy, RKU Campus. The camp was successfully conducted in assistance with PHC / ASHA workers Mrs.

Parulben, faculty Dr. Moushumi Debnath, Dr. Kajal Anadkat, and support from 7th semester BPT students Miss. Kinjal Samani, Miss. Khushubu Savsani, Mr. Amit Kachhatiya, Mr. Ramesh Majethiya, Mr. Tushar Indraker, Miss. Dhruiti Thanki.

